

THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART'S

PARADE — THE — CITY

Parade the City features eight installations created by artists with the help of eight community groups. Installations open on Saturday, June 12.

Julia de Burgos
Artist Hector Castellanos-Lara
2800 Archwood Ave.
"Alegria" mural of brilliant
multicolor panels celebrating
Latinx heritage

Karamu House
Artist Robin Robinson
(with students in grades 3-10)
2355 E. 89th St.
"Hidden in Plain Sight"
quilt celebrating the Underground Railroad

Cleveland School of the Arts
Artist Claudio Orso-Giacone
(with visual arts students in grades 9-12)
2064 Stearns Rd.
A suspended cardboard totem ark
nestled in the glass corner of the building by the main entrance

Esperanza*
Artist Debbie Apple-Presser
3104 W. 25th St. | 4th Floor
A "quilt" of spirit animal guides mounted onto a large roll
of paper
No public viewing.
Please view the art at at cma.org.*

Extended Family
Artist Sue Berry
An Underground Railroad quilt
commemorating Juneteenth
June 12 | 11:00 a.m. June 20 | 1:30 p.m.
Church of the Good Shepherd Forest Hill Church
23599 Cedar Rd. 3031 Monticello Blvd.
June 19 | 11:00 a.m. June 26 | 1:00 p.m.
The African American Restore Cleveland Hope
Cultural Garden Cozad-Bates House
1051 Martin Luther 11508 Mayfield Rd.
King Jr. Rd.

LGBT Center
Artist Denajua
6705 Detroit Ave.
A 3D sculptural diorama
of the Cleveland cityscape
imagined in the future

Cleveland Public Library
Artist Ian Petroni
3096 Scranton Rd.
Plastic bottles collected by library staff, patrons, and friends
hanging from bamboo poles

PIVOT Center for Art,
Dance, and Expression
Artist Jan Stickney-Kleber
2937 W. 25th St.
An outdoor mural with a sail,
paying homage to the building's original tenant, a sail factory
Installation will be complete mid-June.

Visit cma.org for more details.

PARADE — THE — CITY

DEL CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART

Parade the City presenta ocho instalaciones creadas por artistas con la ayuda de ocho grupos de la comunidad. Las instalaciones se abrirán el sábado, 12 de junio.

Julia de Burgos

Artista Héctor Castellanos-Lara
2800 Archwood Ave.

Mural "Alegría" de brillantes paneles multicolor que celebran la herencia latina

Cleveland School of the Arts

Artista Claudio Orso-Giacone

(con estudiantes de artes visuales de los grados 9º a 12º)

2064 Stearns Rd.

Un arca tótem de cartón, suspendida, situada en la esquina de vidrio del edificio junto a la entrada principal

Extended Family

("Familia Extendida")

Artista Sue Berry

Una colcha acerca del ferrocarril clandestino que conmemora el Juneteenth (Día de la emancipación)

12 de junio | 11:00 a.m.
Church of the Good Shepherd
23599 Cedar Rd.

19 de junio | 11:00 a.m.
The African American Cultural Garden
1051 Martin Luther King Jr. Dr.

20 de junio | 1:30 p.m.
Forest Hill Church
3031 Monticello Blvd.

26 de junio | 1:00 p.m.
Restore Cleveland Hope
Cozad-Bates House
Esquina de E.115 y 11508 Mayfield Rd.

Karamu House

Artista Robin Robinson

(con estudiantes de los grados 3º a 10º)

2355 E. 89th St.

"Hidden in Plain Sight"
("Oculto a plena vista")
colcha que celebra el ferrocarril clandestino

Esperanza*

Artista Debbie Apple-Presser

3104 W. 25th St. | 4º piso

Una "colcha" de animales guías espirituales instalada en una gran rollo de papel

Sin exhibición al público.
Puede ver la pieza en cma.org*

LGBT Center

Artista Denajua

6705 Detroit Ave.

Un diorama escultórico en 3D del paisaje urbano de Cleveland imaginado en el futuro

PIVOT Center for Art, Dance, and Expression

Artista Jan Stickney-Kleber

2937 W. 25th St.

Un mural exterior con una vela, que rinde homenaje al ocupante original del edificio, una fábrica de velas

La instalación estará terminada a mediados de junio

Cleveland Public Library

Artista Ian Petroni

3096 Scranton Rd.

Botellas plásticas recolectadas por personal, patrocinadores y amigos de la biblioteca que cuelgan de varas de bambú

Visite cma.org para más detalles.